Hi Everybody!

What a busy couple of weeks! Did you all enjoy World Book Day? There were some amazing costumes I really enjoyed hearing about everybody's favourite books. Next year I might dress up!

My News Hounds went to the groomers! Not for Cats groomers let my friends go and watch a dog being groomed! Even though they had a great time it's still not my favourite so I was happy to stay at school while they enjoyed themselves learning all about what happens behind the scenes!

My lovely friends brought me back some posh treats (I'm still not sure about them) and a trendy new collar!
