

What is good about coming back to school...

What is worrying me about coming back to school...

A worksheet designed to help a student express their worries about returning to school. At the center is a yellow sad face emoji. Surrounding the emoji are four thought bubbles: two circles above and two circles below. Additionally, there are four rectangular boxes for writing: two on the left side and two on the right side of the central emoji.