CONTACT WITH NON-RESIDENT PARENTS NAMED ABOVE

This information is needed to comply with our duties under the Children Act 1989

This relates to parental responsibility as defined by the Children Act 1989.

Everyone who is a parent has a right to participate in decisions about a child's education, even though the school's main contact is likely to be the person with whom the child lives on school days. On separation or divorce both parents continue to have responsibility. Non-married fathers, in certain circumstances, may also have parental responsibility.

If approached by a non-resident parent who is named above we will provide the following information or access to the child, in order to satisfy this statutory right:

Provision of school reports

Invitation to parents evenings

Collection from school

Contact during times of illness

Contact during times of absence

Invitation to sports day and other whole school activities

CONTACT WITH NON-RESIDENT PARENTS NOT NAMED ABOVE

This information is needed to comply with our duties under the Children Act 1989

Unless there is a Court order limiting an individual's exercise of PR, such as an order preventing the absent parent from having contact with the child, or there are safeguarding concerns the school and local authority staff must treat all parents equally.

If there are any safeguarding reasons why a non-resident parent should NOT have access to the child, or know that the child is enrolled in the school, or provided with the above information, please make an appointment to discuss this further with the school and provide details below.
