

Miss Crook

My favourite book when I was 10 was The Lion, The Witch and the Wardrobe by C.S. Lewis. I remember taking it out of the library at Ludlow and how the front cover had a beautiful pattern that looked a bit like a stained glass window. I loved it because it made me believe that maybe there was a magical piece of furniture in my house that might take me to another world.