

Mrs Slade

One of my favourite childhood stories was The Adventures of Pippi Longstocking.

I still sing the song now when I'm cleaning! 🎵

"I put my scrubbing shoes on and I never get the blues on Monday morning, yeah yeah! The dirt will be a gonner as we sweep them through the water with my shoes on, oh yeah! Throwing soap suds everywhere we're being careful, very careful to enjoy ourselves each step of the way. Scrubbing day is a holiday and the game we play is as wild as it can get. Scrubbing day is my favourite day, cause on scrubbing day we make everything get wet." 🎵

If you fancy a wild adventure with Pippi, her horse, and talking monkey, you can find her in the school library.
